

Laura Callan

Outline Statement

The effect on the natural environment will be of far reaching consequences.

Businesses that rely on tourism will suffer owing to the landscape being detrimentally altered.

The transport of the wind turbines is going to clog up the roads due to the size of the lorries and their speed. The transportation will also cause environmental problems.

The need for a connection to the grid and the consequences of this must be taken into consideration.